Marlin Steel Wire Products LLC is expanding its manufacturing space by 75 percent in Baltimore with hopes of doubling its sales from $5 million to $10 million in the next three years.

Marlin Steel extended its plant's lease through 2017 and said it would spend $5 million, or what is equal to the company's 2009 revenue, on new robots to make its products over the next four years. The company makes steel wire baskets and metal products for pharmaceutical, automotive and other plants in the U.S. and 35 other countries.
