

Regional Manufacturing Institute TOWN HALL DISCUSSION HAS AMERICA LOST ITS COMPETITIVE EDGE?

WHY NEXT GENERATION
MANUFACTURING IS ESSENTIAL TO GROWING MARYLAND'S ECONOMY

Honorable Mike Miller

Maryland Senate President
"Legislative leadership for Maryland Manufacturing"

Honorable Kevin Kamenetz

Baltimore County Executive
Special announcement on green manufacturing

Thursday, October 27, 2011

7:00 AM - 12:15 PM

(7:00 - 8:15 exhibits/coffee)

Crowne Plaza Hotel

2004 Greenspring Drive

Timonium, MD 21093

$30 before October 18, $40 after

REGISTER: www.RMIofMaryland.com

Info: 410-771-8111

Business Representatives of DBED Commissions and Councils

Suzy Ganz, President, Lion Brothers,
Maryland Economic Development Commission.
Drew Greenblatt, President, Marlin Steel,
Governor's International Advisory Council.
Jay Steinmetz, President, Barcoding,
Governor's Small Business Commission.
Mike Galiazzo, President, RMI,
Governor's Manufacturing Competitiveness Commission.

MARYLAND OF OPPORTUNITY.

Department of Business & Economic Development

Economic Alliance of GREATER BALTIMORE

Representatives of Economic Development Groups

Dick Story, Vice President Marketing, JPB Enterprises,
Maryland Economic Development Association.
Rob Rosenbaum, President, Maryland TEDCO.
Tom Sadowski, President, Economic Alliance of Greater Baltimore.

Next Generation Rapid Technologies Demos

See products "Made" on the spot with Next Generation rapid technologies that are transforming manufacturing with 3D printers, laser measuring, new tech manufacturing systems and software.

Michael Raphael - Direct Dimensions
Jan Baum - Towson University - Object Lab
Doug Kendzierski - CCBC - MIT Fab Lab

Major Sponsors: Baltimore County Economic Development, TIME Center, Maryland DBED, Economic Alliance of Greater Baltimore, Miles and Stockbridge, JPB Enterprises, Goldratt Consulting